HM accused of misbehaviour with girls; suspended

HOSAPETE (VIJAYANAGARA DISTRICT), DHNS: A head master (HM) of a government school in the taluk has been suspended on the charge of misbehaving with girls.

Some girls had made a complaint to the block education officer (BEO) alleging that the said head master was sexually abusing them. The BEO had constituted a three-member committee to look into the complaint. The committee submitted a report stating that the HM misbehaved with girls and accordingly, the BEO had recommended disciplinary action against him. The deputy director of public instruction suspended the HM with retrospective effect from March 17.

The HM was booked under Pocco Act while he was serving in Kudligi taluk, but was found not guilty in the case.
